Membership Form

The Friends of the Callaway County Public Library, individuals and families acting as a support organization to the library, welcome you as a member! Your membership demonstrates pride in the library and helps ensure its continued success.

We have one meeting a year, usually in April, and we organize fundraising activities such as our book sales. In order to include all members in the activities of the Friends, we ask you to check which of the following ways you would be willing to volunteer your time to help with Friends projects:

- Willing to help with the monthly book sales
- Willing to help store books used for sales
- Willing to serve on a committee for one term (please contact me)
  - Nominating
  - Membership
  - Audit
- Willing to serve on the board for one term
- Serve as host/hostess (provide refreshments) for the annual meeting or when special meetings arise
