

Mothers of Children with Autism

What is MCA?

This is a social group for mothers of children with autism in Columbia and surrounding areas. It offers opportunities for mothers and their families to gather in a positive, social atmosphere.

When do We Meet?

The group offers monthly meetings for mothers of children with autism and meets approximately 4-6 times yearly for family events.

Where do We Meet?

The group meets at various locations in Columbia, MO.

How can you get involved?

Begin by contacting Lora Hinkel at lorahinkel@hotmail.com or by calling her at (573) 424-7013.

Join us for support, friendship and fun!