

BUILD A BETTER WORLD

SUMMER READING TEEN CHALLENGE

JUNE 1 – AUGUST 12, 2017 AGES 12–18

CHALLENGE YOURSELF TO:

- Read for 20 hours
- Do 7 activities
- Share 3 book reviews

Use the back of this sheet to keep track. Get rewards for finishing, starting July 5.

CREATE

Art has the power to change our perspective on the world. Submit your photography, painting, drawing or collage to our “Build a Better World” teen art contest.

Learn more at dbrl.org/teens.

CODE

Do you want to build a whole new world? Learn how to build your own websites and video games by participating in an Hour of Code at dbrl.me/k5

Learn the basics of programming and have fun at the same time.

In South Africa, one community tackled the problem of sustainable housing by building homes from sand bags filled with sand from nearby dunes.

How could you use your skills and talents to build a better world?

Find opportunities to volunteer in your community at dbrl.org/teens.

CONSTRUCT

Daniel Boone
Regional Library

10

11

12

13

14

15

9

WRITE THREE BOOK REVIEWS

Get review sheets at your library or submit at dbrl.org/teens. We'll also post selected reviews.

8

COMPLETE SEVEN ACTIVITIES

- Perform a random act of kindness.
- Make something using recycled material.
- Read a biography about someone who inspires you.
- Get a library card.
- Participate in our teen art contest. (Learn more at dbrl.org/teens.)
- Design a costume for our Cosplay Costume Con.
- Volunteer in your community. (Find options at dbrl.org/teens.)
- Build your own video game at dbrl.me/k5.
- Read a story set in another country.
- Visit a science center or art museum.
- Attend a library program.
- Read a book of poetry or a novel told in verse.
- Download an ebook, audiobook or comic from dbrl.org.

7

6

5

4

3

2

1

READ FOR 20 HOURS

Track your time spent reading books, comics and graphic novels.

16

17

18

19

20

FINISHED!

When you've done all your activities, reviews and reading, bring your completed sheet to your library or bookmobile stop to receive a free book and a chance to win an Amazon Fire tablet.