Discover the Strength within.....

Program Components

Programs offered within Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) are focused on working with children and families from strengths-based and systems-oriented perspectives. The EAIS-ON program will embrace these perspectives and will utilize the following evidence-based models:

1. Trauma Focused-Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT)
2. Motivational Interviewing
2. Family Group Decision Making
 - * Promotes investment in planning
 - * Strives to empower families to resolve concerns

The EAIS-ON program is an intensive four to six month program that encompasses all aspects of mental health and substance abuse recovery.

Meeting Families Where They Are

The EAIS-ON program will meet families where they are in their life journey by:

- * Affirming and supporting the culture of the family
- * Fully acknowledging the rights and abilities of the family
- * Trusting the family to make sound decisions
- * Encouraging the family to actively engage the community
- * Providing early interventions
- * Increasing motivation for positive change
- * Developing natural support systems
- * Assisting families in achieving their goals
- * Supporting and strengthening families in ensuring their children have a clear sense of identity, lasting healthy relationships and healthy support systems.

Target Population

- * Boone County residents
- * Birth to age 19 and their families
- * At risk children and families
- * Children who have been in protective custody 60-days or less

Community Collaborative

The EAIS-ON program is collaborative in nature, using natural support networks and community resources to support the family.

- * State of MO-Children's Division
- * Boone County Juvenile Court
- * Boone County Juvenile Office
- * Center for Dispute Resolution
- * Columbia Public Schools
- * Rural school districts
- * Community Action Agency
- * Boone County Health Department
- * FACE

Eligible Services

- * Prevention
- * Home-based Interventions
- * Community-based Interventions
