

SUMMER READING

MAY 30 - AUGUST 11, 2018

Plug in your mic, turn up the volume and show your library love! We're rockin' out with books and activities all summer long. Summer Reading is free, and we have versions for all ages.

Sign-up begins May 30, except for Books by Snail. Find out more at www.dbrl.org/summerreading.

FOR CHILDREN

Sign up in person at your library or at a bookmobile stop. Complete the program, and, beginning July 5, you'll get a free book. Plus, you'll be entered into a drawing for other fun rewards.

BIRTH TO AGE 5

Read with your child 30 times throughout the summer and do simple activities like playing, drawing or giggling together.

AGES 5-12

Kids will be challenged to read for 20 hours and do 10 activities.

FOR TEENS & ADULTS

Sign up at www.dbrl.org/summerreading, at your library or bookmobile stop.

Complete the challenge, and, beginning July 5, you can pick up a finishing prize. You'll also be entered into a drawing for other rewards like an Amazon Fire Tablet.

TEENS (12-18)

Teens will be challenged to read for 20 hours, share three book reviews and do seven activities.

ADULTS

Read three books, share three reviews and do seven activities.

GROUP SUMMER READING

FOR CHILD CARE CENTERS, CLUBS, ETC.

Sign up at your library, at a bookmobile stop or online at www.dbrl.org/summergroups. We've put together a special version of Summer Reading that's easy to do with a small group of kids like a child care class or a scout troop. You'll receive a booklet of literacy activities and a chart for tracking your group's read-aloud time. Read together 25 times, and your group will receive some free books plus a small reward for every participant.

BOOKS BY SNAIL

FOR GRADES K-12, COUNTY SCHOOLS

Sign-up starts April 16. Sign up at your school or online at www.booksbysnail.org. We'll begin mailing books the last week of May and continue through August 3. This service allows kids in our rural service areas to borrow books and do Summer Reading through the mail. Any child or teen attending school in Auxvasse, Hallsville, Harrisburg, Hatton, Holts Summit, Kingdom City, Mokane, New Bloomfield, Sturgeon or Williamsburg is eligible.
