Read Harder Challenge 2019
Frequently Asked Questions

Does the list need to be completed in order?
No, you can complete the tasks in any order you’d like.

Can one book count toward multiple tasks?
Absolutely!

Where can I find books for the tasks?
- You can find the book lists created by library staff at: http://dbrl.me/n7
- You can find books recommended throughout the year by Book Riot: https://bookriot.com/2018/12/12/2019-read-harder-challenge/
- You can also see other readers’ recommendations using Book Riot’s Goodreads Group: https://www.goodreads.com/group/show/152441-book-riot-s-read-harder-challenge?ref=nav_bar_discussions_pane_group

Can kids/teens participate?
Technically yes, but the list is created with adults in mind, and so the lists we’re curating will be for an adult audience.

Some tasks may be harder to fulfill with children’s books. Teens will probably have an easier time finding books.

Do I have to participate in the Facebook discussion group?
No, but we’d love to have you! (www.facebook.com/groups/dbrl.readharder)
Participation is completely optional. The group is simply another way to have discussions in between our in-person meetings. (And it’s a great way to get book recommendations from other participants!)

When are the in-person meetings?
- March 6, 6-7:30 p.m. in the Virginia Young Room (2nd floor)
- May 9, 6-7:30 p.m. in the Friends Room
- July 18, 6-7:30 p.m. in the Friends Room
- October 22, 6-7:30 p.m. in the Friends Room
- December 17, 6-7:30 p.m. in the Friends Room (finale party!)

Can someone start the challenge late?
Yes! Though, they will still only have until December 31, 2019 to finish the challenge.
