SUMMER READING

MAY 22 – AUGUST 4, 2019

This year Summer Reading is all about the expanse of our imaginations and what happens among the stars. Dream, create and read with your library all summer long. It's free, and we have versions for all ages.

Sign-up begins May 22, except for Books by Snail. Find out more at www.dbrl.org/summerreading.

FOR CHILDREN

Sign up in person at your library or bookmobile stop. Complete the program, and, beginning July 1, you'll get a free book. Plus, you'll be entered into a drawing for other fun rewards.

Birth to Age 5

Read with your child 30 times throughout the summer and do simple activities like playing, drawing or giggling together.

Ages 5-12

Kids will be challenged to read for 15 hours and do 10 activities.

FOR TEENS & ADULTS

Sign up at www.dbrl.org/summerreading, at your library or bookmobile stop. Complete the challenge, and, beginning July 1, you can pick up a finishing prize. You'll also be entered into a drawing for other rewards like an Amazon Fire Tablet.

Teens (12-18)

Teens will be challenged to read for 15 hours, share three book reviews and do seven activities.

Adults

Read three books, share three reviews and do seven activities.

BOOKS BY SNAIL

for grades K-12, county schools

Sign-up starts April 1. Sign up with your school media specialist or online at www.booksbyssnail.org. We'll begin mailing books May 28 and continue through August 4. This service allows kids in our rural service areas to borrow books and do Summer Reading through the mail. Any child or teen attending school in Auxvasse, Hallsville, Harrisburg, Hatton, Kingdom City, Mokane, New Bloomfield, Sturgeon or Williamsburg is eligible.

GROUP SUMMER READING

for child care centers, clubs, etc.

Sign up at your library, at a bookmobile stop or online at www.dbrl.org/summergroups. We've put together a special version of Summer Reading that's easy to do with a small group of kids like a child care class or a scout troop. You'll receive a booklet of literacy activities and a chart for tracking your group's read-aloud time.

Read together 25 times, and your group will get some free books plus a small reward for every participant.

Group Summer Reading is supported by the Institute of Museum & Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act as administered by the Missouri State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.
