

This year, Summer Reading goes wild with stories about animals, both real and imagined. It's free, and we have versions for all ages. Take on reading and activity challenges all summer long to earn rewards and be entered into a drawing for bigger prizes.

Summer Reading sign-up will be online. Reading and activity trackers will be available online. You can also request printed Summer Reading materials at your library, bookmobile or via curbside pickup.

SIGN-UP STARTS JUNE 1.

Complete your reading and activities to earn rewards starting July 1.

Register at www.dbrl.org/summerreading.

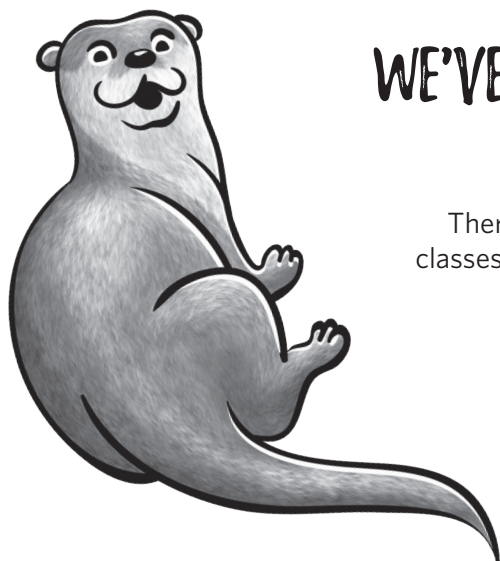

WHEN YOU COMPLETE YOUR READING & ACTIVITIES

CHILDREN (ages 12 and younger) get a free book and entry into a drawing to choose from an array of animal-themed prizes.

TEENS (ages 12 to 18) get a free book and entry into a drawing for an Amazon Fire Tablet.

ADULTS (ages 18 and older) get a free mug and entry into a drawing for an Amazon Fire Tablet.

Pick up your rewards at your library, bookmobile or via curbside pickup from July 1 through August 14.

WE'VE GOT A FEW SPECIAL WAYS TO JOIN THE FUN

Group Summer Reading for Child Care Centers, Clubs, etc.

There's a special version of Summer Reading for small groups of kids like child care classes. Read together 25 times, and your group will get some free books plus a small reward for every participant. Sign up online at www.dbrl.org/summerreading, and we'll mail you a chart for tracking your group's read-aloud time.

Books by Snail for Kids in Grades K-12 at County Schools

Sign up starting April 26 at www.booksbyasnail.org. We'll begin mailing books May 24 and continue through August 14. Any child or teen attending school in Hallsville, Harrisburg, Mokane, New Bloomfield, North Callaway or Sturgeon is eligible to receive books by mail.

We can also mail you Summer Reading materials.
